

Jerusalem,
March 11. 1893.

1:10.

Sir,
With reference to Mr. Consul Moore's Despatch N: 15 of September 4. 1874, I have the honour to enclose herewith, under Flying Seal, a Despatch which I have addressed to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs on the subject of a controversy which has unfortunately arisen

His Excellency
The Right Hon^{ble}
Sir Francis Clare, G.C.B.

arisen between the Right Rev. E. Blyth, Anglican Bishop in Jerusalem, and the German Community as to the rights of the latter to co propriety with the English in the Protestant Cemetery in this City.

Bishop Blyth desires that negotiations may be opened with the German Government on this matter, but light may be thrown upon the subject by the reply of the late Bishop Gobat to Sir Henry

Henry Elliot's Despatch to him of October 4. 1874, of which no trace appears to exist here.

I have the honour to be
With the highest respect

Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient

Humble Servant

John Rickson

Jerusalem ^{of 2} ₃ April, 1875

In reply to G. E.'s telegram of March 31, I have carefully watched position of Armenian Catholics since his exile here.

The Governor of Jerusalem informed me confidentially that after his appointment as Catholicos of Etchmiadzin the Russian Government wished to make him a Russian subject and to convey him in a special steamer through the Dardanelles but that the Porte had been refused this

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's Despatch of the 14th of January last, stating, with reference to the inspection of books belonging to the London Jews' Society, that Your Excellency would be glad to know whether Mr. Kelk objects to the books which are destined for Jerusalem being examined here, and
