

British Consulate
Jerusalem. November 24. 1863

Sir,

N^o. 27.

I have the honor to enclose to Your Excellency a copy of a letter addressed to me by M^r. Jehiel Juda Lip-Peil, a British subject, native of India, applying for a licence from the Porte for opening a Printing Press and publishing a Hebrew Newspaper, called "Halbanon", at Jerusalem. I have also transmitted a copy of M^r. Peil's application to the Pasha of Jerusalem, requesting him to take the necessary steps to procure the Licence, which His Excellency has promised to do.

Mr. Brill having opened a Printing Press and published his newspaper without a Licence, in consequence of alleged ignorance of the Regulations on this subject, he has been under the necessity of suspending the publication of his Journal; an early receipt of the Licence would therefore save him much loss

loss and inconvenience.

Sir,

I have the honor to report to Your Excellency that M. Lecatis, the Greek Consul at Jerusalem, came some days ago to me to seek my advice and support under the following circumstances.

M. Lecatis stated that he had by the last mail from Constantinople received instructions from
