

Her Majesty's Consulate
Jerusalem, March 13th, 1865.

174.
Dear Sir,

Sir,
I have the honour to report the arrival on the 1st instant at Jerusalem, of their Royal Highnesses Prince Charles and Prince Eugene, of Sweden.

The Princes, who are travelling incognito under Mess<sup>rs</sup> Cook's management

Hugh Wingham Esq<sup>r</sup>, C.B.
Her Britannic Majesty's Charge d'Affaires Constantinople

JERUSALEM

Primo of No. 3.

February 14th 1865 bridge lately constructed by the Turkish Government near the River Jordan.

Reports the completion of a new wooden bridge lately constructed by the Turkish Government near the River Jordan.

Small note of the small note
about the

1865

management were, at the request of their agent here, escorted by two Cavasses of the British Consulate, to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and to the Mosque of Omar; and after a stay of three days during which they visited all the different sites of interest in the City and its neighbourhood, they left Jerusalem on the 4th instant, for Jericho and the Jordan, on their way to Beyrout, via Nablous and Damascus.

It

It is understood that the visit of the Princes to Jerusalem, was chiefly in the nature of a private pilgrimage, and was not marked by any incident of political interest.

I have the honour to be
Sir,

Your most obedient Humble servant
W. H. A. Kayat

Ms. A. 9. 127

Copy to be sent to the Council here at the request of the Hon.

Reporting visit of the Dutch Princes to Jerusalem.

Received 3/15

Jerusalem, March 13th
Acting Consul Kayat
No. 4
1 Encl.

JERUSALEM

Pricis of No. 4, of March 13th, 1885.

Reports visit of their Royal Highnesses
Prince Charles and Eugene of Sardinia, to Jerusalem.