My Tel. June 4.

Five of the six walls of the hexagon are now demolished as well as whole of the Northern of the two shops (see plan in late comen's Despatch No 35 of July 14th 1903).
Demolition of wall would leave Southern shop open and the Authorities declare themselves unable to carry it out unless allowed to prolong the northern wall of the still standing shop Eastward in a straight line as far as its Easterly wall so as to close it in.

I think that this is a reasonable request and beg that Y.E. will sanction it. More has been demolished than we asked for and we can hardly demand the demolition of shop in occupation which
