The District Commissioner,
Jerusalem.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with your request, I hereby declare that the 110 Prayer Books found in the rooms which were recently opened at Debra Gannett, belong to the Convent; are the property of the Convent, and have the stamp of the Convent inside same.

I guarantee that I shall take care of these books and use them for the Convent and should any question as to ownership arise at any time regarding these books, and should, God forbid, it be proved otherwise than what I say regarding their ownership, I shall return these books to you at your first request.

Most respectfully yours,

(Member Kefla Garima) Superior of the Ethiopian Convent.
