

No 15

Jerusalem

April 27. 1855

My Lord.

I have the honor to state that a rumor is circulated about here that Salutes from the Castle guns are allowed for the celebration of Fete days of the Sovereigns in alliance with the Porte, on application being made to that effect by the respective Courts, and that it is allowed gratis.

His Excellency
 Right Honorable
 Count Stratford de Redcliffe
 G.C.B. &c

My

Jerusalem 27th April
 Mr Consul Paris

No 14

No 1

French influence

My Dragoman has enquired of the Pasha's Secretary, and the latter replied that there is no written Order on the subject, but no doubt it would be granted if asked for.

I beg to enquire of Your Ladship if this be correct, and I do so in the hope of the possibility of receiving an answer before Her Majesty's birth-day on May 24th. for if this opportunity be missed, when allowed. the

the next similar festival will be that of the Emperor of France

I have the honor to be My Lord
with the highest respect Your Lordship's most obedient humble Servant
James Finn.

N^o 16

Jerusalem

April 30. 1859

My Lord.

I have the honor to state that in my Despatch N^o 12. I was mistaken in stating that the slave of Abu Gosh threw the first stone at Abd'el Latif - It was the slave of the murdered man Hadj Abd'Allah Darich.

And that I am this day sending to London, copies of my

Excellency
Right Honorable
Comte Stratford de Redcliffe
S. C. B 82

Nos

Enquiring as to salutes from the Castle on festivals of Rivalry serenades

Jerusalem 1859
The Consul General
Apr 15
No 1