My Lord.

I have the honor to report that a gentleman of the Hon.<sup>ble</sup> East India Company's Commissariat Service for Bengal, who had passed through this country, has lately warned me by letter from London, as he did orally while his Excellency

Right Honorably
The Count Stratford de Redcliffe

here, of the existence of some persons of the Thug confederacy being in Jerusalem among the Indian Moslem pilgrims.

By his advice I have reported the subject to the Thuggee Department of Bengal — and have reported to the Foreign Office, a copy of my communication with that Board.

I have the honor to be
My Lord
