No 6

Jerusalem 26. Feb 37.
1844

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Your Despatch No 4. by which I have the gratification to learn that you are pleased to express Your entire approval of my proceedings on the occasion of Ryder Pacha's interference at the late Mrs Ewald's funeral —

In conformity with your desire I beg to transmit to You herewith, Copies of all the correspondence which I have had with the Documents relating to the purchase of the British Burial Ground here, by which You will notice that my proceedings in regard to it have from the first been open and regular — I must therefore leave You to judge of the value and object of Ayaad & Ryder Pachas representations on this subject, when

To Colonel Rose C.B.
&c. &c. &c. Consul General whom with accepts the Original Documents and correspondence which are, or ought to be, deposited at the Jerusalem Mukhamé, and the knowledge that the Ground was universally known to have been purchased for the sole purpose to which it is now dedicated, they could attempt to impress You with the idea that I had purchased it — otherwise than most openly and regularly, and expressly for a Burial Ground —

Moreover, in respect both to vicinity to the Moslem Burial Grounds, which is now made the subject of complaint, I beg to state to You, that the site — was duly submitted to the Egyptian Authorities both here and in Egypt before the purchase was made, and every opportunity was then afforded to the Local Authorities, no less than by Colonel Campbell to the Egyptian —

Government

Government to disapprove of the locality.
It is one Hundred and Eighty two paces, i.e 546 feet from the nearest moslem Grave. The space between us and them is occupied as Arrable Land, hence I apprehend that our Dead are not very likely to come in contact —

There is an expression in the Mufti's opinion, to which I would beg leave specially to draw Your attention, as it proves that his "notification" had nothing to do with the Pacha's proceedings.
The Mufti says, "and one day before the date of this notification, he buried also another one" — therefore the Pacha cannot shelter himself behind the pretence of having acted in consequence of this notification — It was addressed to him after he had acted, and most probably at his own suggestion, in order that it might appear that the course which he had

he had adopted was taken in consequence of the representations of the Religious Authorities of the place—

It may justly be asked, why no steps were taken at the time of, or after Mr Bateson's immediately funeral, instead of at the very last hour? I reply, because the Pacha's object was to vex and embarrass me at a moment when he suspected that I should be the most jealous of such interference, and more susceptible to such an annoyance— It was from good feeling on my part, and a desire to manifest a friendly disposition towards the Pacha, that I accepted his expressions of regret to my Interpreter, for his untimely and vexatious interference, as sufficient— As however there has been such duplicity on the part of the Turkish Authorities in this affair, I would respectfully beg leave to submit to You, whether we are now justified in allowing the matter to rest where it does, and not rather to bring the case before His Excellency Her Majesty's Ambassador, and the Supreme Government at Constantinople, as a complaint against Ryder Pacha on the one hand, and on the other, with a view to obtain a Firman to prevent a recurrence of similar conduct on the part of a Governor towards Her Majesty's Consulate, as well as to enable us to enclose our Cemetery within a wall conformably to the original design—

Having had the honor agreeably to Your request, to place before You all the particulars of which I am in possession relating to this subject, I venture to hope that You will see no just cause for Ayaad and Ryder Pachas complaints respecting either the position or the tenure of the British Burial Ground in Jerusalem—

At the particular request of Bishop Alexander, I did, before My previous visit was occupied, as You are aware, endeavour to to ascertain if it were possible to exchange it for a spot nearer to the other Christian Cemeteries but I found that there were objections made by the Turks on all sides, especially by the Proprietors of the land desired I was therefore compelled to abandon it.

But even if I had found that it was practicable to make such an arrangement as would be agreable to Bishop Alexander's wish, I should not have felt myself justified in acting upon it without first reporting it to the Foreign Office and obtaining permission to alter that which had been so regularly obtained and established through the intervention of my Superior in Egypt, and I may also add, sanctioned from home — And had I nothing to depend upon to enable me to select another Burial Ground, but Ageed Pacha's promise to give directions to Hyder Pacha to do all he could to meet my wishes, I should very much fear that if we were now to concede the point, we should be abandoning a clear and reasonable right established involving in it the serious and humiliating slip of having to disturb our dead to gratify the jealous feelings of perhaps others, as well as the malicious and fanatical feelings of those who have attacked us in this just and justly acquired privilege, without the prospect of coming to any satisfactory arrangement.

In submission to the confidential observations which you have been pleased to do me the honor to make at the conclusion of Your Despatch, in part explanatory of the present conduct of the Turkish Functionaries, I would venture respectfully to observe that while such consideration in their behalf may under some circumstances seem to be necessary, in regard to their more ordinary duties, yet they can scarcely be justified in making an aggression on privileges once accorded to a friendly Power, and at a moment when the Subjects of that Power are engaged in fulfilling one of the most painful and solemn duties of life—

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most Obedient Humble Servant

Sir,

In conformity with your desire, I have selected a spot which I think will in all respects suit the purpose of a Burial Ground, should there prove no objection to it on the part of the Egyptian Government.

It is a piece of ground lying between the Jaffa road & that leading to the Convent of the Cross, and it is about 30, or 40 paces square, perhaps 500 paces westward from the Jaffa gate.

The proprietor is willing to sell it - it is now put to no other use, than for the cultivation of a little grain.

From the rocky & uneven surface of the ground in the immediate neighbourhood of the City, the choice of position is very limited.

My Lord

I have the honor to apprise Your Lordship that through the intervention of Colonel Campbell I have been enabled to purchase at a convenient distance from the City of Jerusalem a piece of ground for a Protestant Cemetery.

I have received from various English Travellers subscriptions for this purpose to the amount of £24.10 Sterling

I have paid for the ground 1,000 piastres, and for fees, expences &c. 200 Do. leaving a balance in my hands of 1258 piasters towards the expences of enclosing the ground with a wall: Estimating the expences of which by what the Americans have laid out for their burial ground, which is
