Jerusalem
April 21. 1857

My Lord.

I have the honor to report that the celebration of the Holy fire from the Sepulchre, passed off this year without the least accident owing to the excellent precautions taken by the military authorities.

The Colonel and his 4th Regiment are soldiers of a superior order to any that I have before seen in

No 15.

My Lord.

I have the honor to report among the occurrences that are considered of political interest here, that all the Roman Catholic Consuls have now their Chairs of State placed before the Holy Sepulchre when the Latin Patriarch officiates there, and not only the French Consul as hitherto.
