

of Brabant, except that His Imperial Highness walked into Jerusalem from the distance of about a mile - namely, from the spot whence the city is first visible.

His Imperial Highness resides at the Austrian Consulate.

The whole party entered the Mosque of the Kharam yesterday - to day are gone to Bethlehém - and intend to leave us for Jaffa this afternoon -

The Agent in here reports that a French Corvette of war arrived there the week before last and after visiting the fortrefs - passed on to Jaffa.

I have the honor to be

My Lord
with the highest respect

Your Lordships

most obedient humble servant

James Fico.

My dear
to London

No 23

Jerusalem
July 4. 1855

My Lord

I beg to state in correction of my last Despatch that His Imperial Highness the Archduke Ferdinand Maximilian resided while in Jerusalem, at the Latin Convent, to the great satisfaction of the Austrian monks who have long complained of being treated with inferior consideration to others by their

His Excellency Superior
Rt Hon^{ble} Viscount Stratford de Redcliffe
G.C.B. &c &c

His

Arrival of H. S. H. the Archduke Maximilian

No 22

No 22.

Jerusalem July 22
Mr General Finlay

9